Two-time consensus all-American linebacker Mike Singletary amassed 662 tackles in his four-year career at Baylor. He holds the single season record with the 232 tackles he had as a sophomore.

Baylor scored a school record of five safeties this season. All of them came on punt plays where the ball was snapped over the punter's head or the Bears blocked the attempts.

Player Sketches

- 1 BLEDSON, ROBERT — Kicker — 21, 5-8, 175, SR-3L, Missouri City . . . is the top all-time Baylor career scorer with 204 points . . . is the No. 3 scorer on the team as well with 51 points for the season . . . he's missed only two extra points in four years at Baylor . . . he's 111 of 113 in his career . . . kicks soccer style . . . has been a little inconsistent in the field goal department this year, but against SMU he kicked a 35-yarder when SMU was ahead 28-14 . . . against Rice, the game in which the Bears clinched the conference title, he booted field goals of 48, 24 and 33 yards to help assure the win.
- 2 ALFRED ANDERSON — Halfback — 18, 6-2, 205, Frosh., Waco (Richfield) . . . has been Abercrombie's understudy this season but still has managed to score 9 TD's and rush for 290 yards . . . is in line for Newcomer of Year honors in Southwest Conference . . . in a reserve role, has become Baylor's "Designated Scorer" . . . plays on all short-yardage situations and has also caught two passes this year . . . all-State quarterback a year ago in high school but injured wrist in prep all-star game and was switched to RB this fall until it healed . . . is also listed as Bears' third-team quarterback for the Cotton Bowl.

BLEDSON

- 3 GENTRY, DENNIS — Fullback — 21, 5-9, 180, Jr.-1L, Lubbock (Dunbar) . . . has been the biggest offensive surprise on team this year . . . in ten games has rushed for 883 yards which ranks him third in the league and second on team behind Abercrombie . . . both runners compliment each other well as both have been over 100-yards in rushing two times together this year with Gentry doing it four times in all . . . should become second on all-time career rushing charts early next season behind Abercrombie . . . is team's leading receiver coming out of backfield with eight catches . . . longest reception was a 40-yarder against TCU for a TD . . . longest rush from scrimmage was 64-yard jaunt for TD against Texas and best game rushing also came against Longhorns, that being 130 yards . . . also returns kickoffs for the Bears . . . missed game and a half this year with shoulder separation, otherwise probably would have been over 1,000 yards also.

- 4 WARD, PHILLIP — Halfback — 21, 5-11, 181, Jr-1L, Midland . . .valuable performer in a reserve role, could play for a lot of Southwest Conference teams . . . rushed for 188 yards on 44 carries, a 4.3 clip in 1980 . . . longest rush in the year was 21-yard run against Arkansas . . . also caught three passes for 12 yards and returned four kickoffs for 83 yards (a 20.3 average) . . . best game was 51 yard performance against the Razorbacks . . . gained 183 yards in 1979 and scored one touchdown . . . high game in 1979 was 70 yard day against the Army.
- 9 MANGRUM, DAVID — Quarterback — 21, 6-4, 200, So-Sq, Bells . . .one of the best quarterback prospects to come through the Baylor camp in some time . . . originally signed with the Bears two years ago but opted instead for a try with the Kansas City Royals Baseball organization as a pitcher . . . completed 10 passes in 1980, covering 234 yards and three TDs . . . also ran the ball for 60 yards, including a 30-step romp vs. Lamar . . . longest pass completion went for 53 yards, also against Lamar . . . was named the Most Valuable Offensive Player in last spring's Green-White game . . . played class A high school ball at Bells High.

DITTA

- 11 SMITH, SCOTT — Safety — 21, 5-10, 177, Jr-2L, Dallas . . .Not tremendously gifted, but a very smart player who is as determined as anybody on the field . . . a real inspiration to the rest of the team . . . more than held his own, starting at safety most of the year . . . made 31 tackles and intercepted 3 passes . . . broke up eight passes . . . an extremely hard hitter, he's not afraid to take on running backs or tight ends much bigger . . . holds on field goal and extra point attempts . . . if everyone on the team got as much out of his ability as Smith, the Bears would be unbeatable, says Teaff.
- 13 McNEIL, GERALD — Split End — 18, 5-8, 139, Fr., Killeen . . .filled a preseason Baylor weakness and made it into a team strong point . . . returned 41 punts for a school record 395 yards (9.6 average) . . . also ran back eight kickoffs for 189 steps, a 23.6 clip . . . grabbed five passes from his second-string wingback position for 51 yards and one touchdown . . . shows no fear to receive or run back punts in crowded conditions . . . has also rushed the ball one time against San Jose State for five yards . . . a probable all-SWC performer before finishing career . . . brother Pat was member of 1975 championship Baylor squad.

- 14 JEFFREY, JAY — Quarterback — 21, 6-0, 181, Jr-Tr, Shawnee Mission (South), Kansas . . . another all-SWC selection in the Baylor backfield . . . has been a consistent and steady performer at the quarterback slot all season long . . . is the team's leading passer with 72 completions in 162 tries for 1,096 yards . . . has thrown for eight touchdowns this year and ran for five more . . . longest pass completion was a 34-yarder to Robert Holt against SMU . . . totaled 453 yards rushing this season, third best on team and also had an 83-yard TD run against Lamar in season opener which established new school record . . . ranks third in SWC in total offense . . . has been leader of offense which has led league in total and rushing offense all season long . . . Baylor also ranks in top five nationally in those categories . . . brother Neal was quarterback of only other Baylor team to go to Cotton Bowl . . . total offense yardage this year was 1,549 which ranks seventh on Baylor charts.
- 16 McELROY, VANN — Free Safety — 20, 6-2, 219, Jr-2L, Uvalde . . . the Southwest Conference's pass interception leader this year with eight thefts who also ranks high nationally . . . has 12 for his career which is only three away from school mark . . . part of defensive secondary which leads nation in interceptions with 29 and which also leads league in fewest TD passes allowed, lowest completion percentage and lowest per catch average . . . leads defensive backs in tackles with 57 in and in passes broken up with 10 . . . is a terrific hitter as several of his passes broken up have come from hard hits and not deflections . . . a very smart player who is very active on the field . . . seems to always make the big play . . . had two interceptions versus TCU this year.

GENTRY

- 17 HOLT, ROBERT "RADAR" — Wing Back — 21, 6-1, 178, SR-2L, Grand Prairie . . . Teams with Mike Fisher to give Baylor one of the best pairs of receivers in the conference . . . led the team with 29 catches for 464 yards . . . that's 16.0 yards per catch on a team that is known for running the ball . . . longest gainer was a 34 yarder against SMU . . . has incredible hands . . . in practice will often go all day making nothing but one-handed catches . . . had a TD catch against Houston . . . one of the wittiest members of the team . . . best game of the year came against SMU when he had 6 receptions . . . while Fisher is used mainly for deep routes, Holt handles the mid-range patterns well . . . blocks extremely well downfield . . . when Walter Abercrombie had 79 yard run against Rice and 71-yarder against Texas A&M, it was Radar who made the final clearing blocks downfield . . . six catches against SMU was the best game of any Baylor receiver this year.

- 19 VINES, VIC — Safety — 19, 6-0, 180, So-1L, Odessa . . . another important name in Baylor's football future . . . filled in admirably when starter Cedric Mack was injured in Texas Tech affair . . . plays well in clutch situations . . . second leading tackler among secondary personnel with 38 stops, 28 unassisted . . . two of the stops were behind the opposition's line of scrimmage . . . intercepted three passes and broke up eight others . . . also returned one kickoff in 1980 for 20 yards . . . returned nine kicks for a 17.4 average in 1979.
- 22 FISHER, MIKE — Split End — 22, 5-11, 172, Sr-2L, Gatesville . . . Has outstanding ability to get open and catch the ball . . . has sprinter's speed and good hands . . . was Baylor's No. 2 receiver for the year with 22 catches for 494 yards . . . has an incredible per catch average of 22.5 yards . . . has made several big catches this year . . . against Lamar he caught two passes for 112 yards . . . had the longest Baylor reception of the year in that same game, a 71 yarder . . . scored two TDs against Lamar . . . the next week against West Texas State, he had five receptions for 84 yards . . . scored six TDs on receptions in the season . . . a real clutch performer . . . against Arkansas he had a TD catch where he was flipped by a tackler as he crossed the goal line, fumbled the ball, but caught his fumble while falling on his back in the endzone.
- 27 STOWE, RON — Punter — 21, 6-3, 215, Soph-1L, Houston . . . Has been the Bears' only punter all year . . . punted 70 times for an average of 38.6 yards . . . didn't have quite the year he had as a freshman, but made some good punts from time to time during the year . . . had a 61 yarder against Rice . . . also had a 58-yard punt against Texas Tech in the rain.

GLASS

GREGORY

HOLT

- 32 YOUNG, THOMAS EARL — Cornerback — 21, 6-0, 164, Sr-3L, Houston . . . Has been consistent player at cornerback all year . . . plays the run extremely well . . . made 35 tackles in the season . . . made two tackles behind the line . . . intercepted four passes and got return yardage of 82 yards . . . broke up 10 passes . . . against San Jose State he intercepted two passes . . . had returns of 22 and 41 yards on those two . . . the 41 yard return was the longest interception return of the year for the Bears.

- 34 ABERCROMBIE, WALTER — Runningback — 21, 6-0, 203, Jr-2L, Waco (University)... All-Southwest-Conference selection who led the league in rushing this season... totaled 1,187 yards this year for a new school record... that averages out to 107.9 yards a game... also holds school record for career rushing yards and single game rushing yards... has been ranked consistently among the top 20 in national rushing stats this season... was second-team all-SWC a year ago and first team by the prestigious Texas Football Magazine... has rushed for over 100 yards in a game 15 times during his career at Baylor, with eight of those coming this season... leads team in scoring with 10 TD's... is in line for some all-American honors this year also... has developed into all-around back, according to Coach Teaff... Says Teaff, "Walter can do it all. Not only can he run tough inside and out, but he can block, catch the football and fake as well as any back I've ever had"... best game this year was a 168-yard effort against Rice... longest run from scrimmage also came against Rice, a 79-yarder on the first play of the game... also had a 71-yard run against Texas A&M... has caught five passes for 77 yards this season with longest reception being a 30-yarder against SMU.

JEFFREY

MACK

- 35 LIVELY, MIKE — Tight End — 20, 6-4, 212, Soph-1L, Waco... Moved into the starting tight end spot when Raymond Cockrell was sidelined with a knee injury... had plenty of playing time all year as Teaff used TE's as messengers for play calling... also used in goal-line situations in backfield... has good speed, strength and hands... caught two passes for 39 yards, and carried the ball once for 33 yards... in '79 caught the longest pass of the season in the SWC, an 83-yard TD... valuable to the Bears mostly for his blocking ability, but can be a power runner when he gets the football.
- 37 MACK, CEDRIC — Cornerback — 19, 6-0, 182, Soph-1L, Freeport... Was the starter in the first 2 games of the year and for the last 6... spent 3 weeks out with an ankle injury... after he regained his form, he was outstanding... intercepted four passes and broke up three... in the title-clinching game against Rice, he made an unbelievable one handed catch, running full speed in the back of the endzone to thwart the Owl's last scoring attempt... Teaff called it one of the greatest plays he's ever seen... against Texas he intercepted a pass that linebacker Doak Field tipped to halt a Texas scoring threat... Baylor led 7-0 at the time and Texas was on the Bear six... has tremendous future ahead of him.

- 45 GANDY, GEFF — Linebacker — 20, 6-2, 213, So-1L, San Antonio . . . will be important man in Bears' 1981 plans due to the loss to graduation at the linebacker spot . . . had nine stops in 1980, one for two yards in losses . . . also broke up one pass . . . second strongest player on the team behind Singletary . . . member of all Bear specialty teams . . . helped block punt last year against Texas Tech that turned the ballgame in Baylor's favor . . . eight tackles in 1979 . . .
- 46 FIELD, DOAK — Linebacker — 22, 6-3, 230, Sr-2L, Burnet . . . a four-year starter for the Bears who saved his best year for last . . . ranks second behind Singletary in tackles among linebackers with 79 and also has three pass interceptions, two fumble recoveries and one blocked kick . . . he's one big reason why Baylor has ranked first in total and rushing defense most of the season in the SWC . . . supports the outside run very well . . . received SWC player-of-the-week honors after Houston game this year . . . one of the co-captains on team . . . teams with Singletary and weakside backer Lester Ward to form what could be finest trio of linebackers in nation . . . all are four year starters . . . is in line for post-season laurels.
- 48 BENSON, CHARLES — Defensive End — 19, 6-3, 237, Soph-1L, Houston (Aldine) . . . a real surprise for the Bears this fall . . . made the switch from linebacker to end very successfully . . . is particularly adept at knocking down passes of which he has 13 for the year . . . was honored as the SWC's defensive player-of-the-week after Texas Tech ball game where he had seven tackles for losses and knocked down four quarterback passes . . . for the year has a team-high 16 tackles behind the line for 72 yards in losses . . . has 72 total tackles for the year plus one fumble recovery and one kick block.

McELROY

McGEARY

NELSON

- 49 WARD, LESTER — Linebacker — 21, 6-0, 200, Sr-3L, Temple . . . One-third of the trio that many call the best set of linebackers in conference history . . . moves well, and relies on speed and quickness . . . plays the run well . . . had 67 tackles in the year . . . three went for losses totaling 10 yards . . . broke up two passes . . . led the team with five fumble recoveries, proof that he's always around the ball . . . doesn't mind playing in the shadow of greats Mike Singletary and Doak Field, but is good in his own right . . . has started for Baylor all four years . . . unselfish as he can be . . . had eight tackles against Houston and Rice and ten against SMU . . . came up with big interception against Texas.

- 55 GLASS, BOBBY — Offensive Tackle — 21, 6-4, 245, Soph-Sq, Duncanville . . . Moved into the starting right tackle spot when Eddy Gregory went from right to left tackle after Mark Adickes' injury . . . started the year as No. 2 right tackle . . . has performed all year like a veteran, and did a better than average job . . . tremendously hard worker . . . went from fill-in to bright spot in the course of the season . . . has great career ahead of him with the Bears.
- 58 NELSON, ROBERT "BUZZY" — Center — 21, 6-3, 230, Sr-2L, San Antonio . . . Started all year at center and was one reason Baylor led the Southwest Conference in rushing . . . not big or strong, but very smart . . . calls the offensive line blocking schemes for the Bears . . . also snaps deep on punts, field goals and extra points . . . played much of the year with a sprained arch . . . has played hurt much of his career . . . starts because he just never makes mistakes . . . always grades high.
- 59 RINALDO, STEVE — Linebacker — 22, 6-2, 209, Sr-1L, Littleton, CO . . . fourth leading linebacker tackler in 1980 . . . SINGLETARY

TABOR

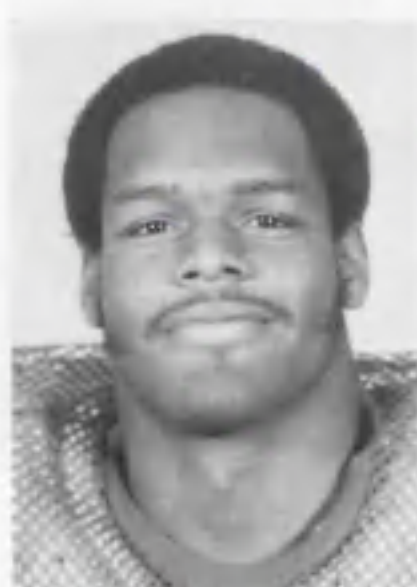

SMITH

- 60 DITTA, FRANK — Offensive Guard — 22, 6-2, 250, Sr-2L, Houston (Cypress Fairbanks) . . . another all-SWC pick on the Baylor offense this season . . . made second-team all-league a year ago and has been unequalled leader of this year's productive offensive line . . . Baylor has led league in rushing offense since outset and Ditta is main reason why . . . is one of the strongest players on the team . . . "When you're leading the league and up among the nation's top running teams, somebody up front must be doing a good job. Frank Ditta is our main man up there," claims Coach Teaff. "He's worthy of all-American mention." . . . is one of three captains of the Bears.

- 63 SINGLETARY, MIKE — Linebacker — 22, 6-1, 232, Sr-3L, Houston (Worthing)...everybody's all-American... is completing banner career at Baylor which has gained him consensus all-American honors already... has 145 tackles this year and a four-year total of 662 stops... has been named as Associated Press' national defensive player of the week after the Arkansas game... also has 11 tackles behind the line of scrimmage for 31 yards in losses... has picked off two passes this year and broken up five more... also has three fumble recoveries this season... is one of four finalists for prestigious Lombardi Award... has already been named to Football Writers', Football Coaches' and Football News all-American teams this year... a year ago made the aforementioned teams plus Associated Press and Walter Camp team, too... has been SWC's Defensive Player-of-the-Year for the last two years.
- 65 KIRCHNER, MARK — Offensive Guard — 21, 6-2, 246, Soph-1L, Deer Park... Was the No. 1 offensive right guard all season... another one who doesn't have the outstanding physical specifications, but plays on determination and quickness... helped anchor the right side of the line when Eddy Gregory moved to left tackle and Bobby Glass moved to the tackle spot next to him... earned his starting spot in spring practice and has been consistent all year in an area that had numerous questions before the season.
- 66 GREGORY, EDDY — Offensive Guard — 22, 6-2, 233, Sr-2L, Kermit... Started the year at right tackle, but was moved to left spot when Mark Adickes was injured in the opening game... made the move easily because of experience and know-how... one of several offensive linemen who started as question-marks, but developed into consistently good players... teamed with Frank Ditta to make a devastating left side of the offensive line... uses quickness and finesse to get the job done... smallest interior lineman for Baylor.

YOUNG

- 77 TABOR, TOMMY — Defensive Tackle — 20, 6-3, 260, Jr-2L, Calvert... Moved up through the ranks and emerged as an outstanding defensive tackle this year... coaches thought the potential was there, but he did even better than expected... was a member of the defensive front seven that was outstanding against the run... teamed with Joe Campbell to give the Bears one of the best pair of tackles in the conference... had 78 tackles for the year, the second highest total for down linemen... had eight tackles behind the line for 49 yards in losses . . . knocked down two passes . . . had great games against Houston (17 tackles) and SMU (10 tackles) . . . uses quickness and balance to get to the ball all over the field . . . could be one of the league's best before he's through.

- 78 CAMPBELL, JOE — Defensive Tackle — 22, 6-0, 254, Sr-3L, Cuero . . . has really come through for the Bears this year . . . coaches counted upon him to be good, but not THIS good . . . has 91 tackles for the season (second high on team) and has thrown runners for losses four times for 12 yards . . . also has broken up four passes and recovered three fumbles . . . "I've seen all of the defensive linemen play this year and no one has performed better than Joe Campbell," states Teaff . . . is in line for all-Conference recognition this season.
- 80 COCKRELL, RAYMOND — Tight End — 22, 6-3, 229, Sr-3L, Killeen . . . led Bear tightends in receptions with four, covering 70 yards (17.5 average) and one touchdown . . . longest grab of the year was 34-yard effort vs. San Jose State . . . injured in San Jose State loss and missed last three games of the campaign . . . best game was two reception performance against Texas A&M . . . also had four receptions in 1979, but for fine 29 yard clip . . . two of those grabs went for touchdowns . . . capped off 1979 season with fine Peach Bowl game where he was on the receiving end of a 7-yard scoring strike.
- 81 MITCHELL, ROBERT — Split End — 21, 6-6, 201, Jr-2L, Houston . . . Enjoyed a steady 1980, catching 10 passes for 241 yards, a 24.1 average (highest on the team) . . . had three-reception performance in both Lamar and West Texas State games . . . 58-yard catch vs. Lamar was high for the year . . . had a crucial 37-yard reception vs. SMU when Bears were playing catchup . . . leading receiver on 1979 team with 10 grabs for 192 yards . . . also caught 10 passes freshman year, two going for touchdowns . . . high school teammate of Mike Singletary.
- 86 HOUSTON, SAM — Tight End — 20, 6-3, 198, So-1L, Abilene . . . inserted into lineup in 1979 battle with SMU and has been performing well since . . . caught two passes in 1980 (both against SMU) for 16 yards . . . also was on the receiving end of two passes in 1979 . . . was a redshirt two years ago and was the final Baylor player signed in 1978 . . . will rotate with Mike Lively and Raymond Cockrell to bring in plays from Baylor bench.
- 92 SMITH, RAY — Defensive End — 22, 6-2, 210, Sr-1L, Dallas . . . missed five games of the 1980 season due to bad knee . . . fifth leading tackler on the team among linemen, although, with 11 unassisted and 16 stops overall . . . three of the tackles went for 20 yards in losses . . . great quickness provides Smith with good ability to rush the passer . . . blocked one kick in 1980, against Texas, and is valuable member of Bear specialty squads . . . father James Ray was an all-American at Baylor and all-pro with the Cleveland Browns and Dallas Cowboys.
- 99 McGEARY, MAX — Defensive End — 21, 6-2, 219, Sr-3L, Denver City . . . this kick blocking machine has turned into a pretty solid defensive end, also . . . although blocking kicks is his specialty, he has 61 total tackles from his end position, including 13 for 51 yards in losses . . . also has three passes knocked down and two fumble recoveries . . . he has added five blocked kicks to his total this year which is now up to 16 for his career . . . broken down that's six field goals, six punts and four PAT's that he has rejected.

During the 1980 season, 28 Baylor team and individual school records were broken. A total of 10 individual records fell, while 18 team records were rewritten. Among the more notable team records to fall were most victories in a season (10), most SWC wins(8), most yards rushing per game (296.9), most points scored in a season (315), most total yards in a season (4848) and most interceptions (29).

Walter Abercrombie assaulted the Baylor record book in several categories this season. His 1,187 yards were the most ever by a Bear runner in one season and his career total of 2,734 is also tops. He has the most career carries, 514, for a Baylor runner as well.

Baylor Personalities

DR. ABNER V. McCALL, Baylor President. A strong

advocate of private education, McCall is the president of three statewide independent collegiate associations. He also sits on the Texas Adult Probate Commission, is the chairman of the board of directors of two scientific institutions and teaches a men's Bible Study class at the First Baptist Church of Waco.

At 65 years of age, Baylor's president leads a more active life than many of his students. A Bachelor of Arts degree and a Juris Doctorate from Baylor led to teaching law at Baylor for four years, starting in 1938.

DR. HERBERT REYNOLDS, Executive Vice President. Baylor's chief operating officer is the distinguished Dr. Herbert H. Reynolds. After a long and honorable career as an educator, scientific researcher and officer in the Air Force, he joined the Baylor administration in April of 1969 as executive vice president.

BILL MENEFEE, Interim Athletic Director. Menefee took over the athletic department control Sept. 1 with the retirement of longtime AD Jack Patterson. The Grand Falls native was Baylor head basketball coach 12 years (1961-73) and posted a 149-144 record.

DAVID TAYLOR, Assistant Athletic Director. In his sixth year as Baylor assistant athletic director and handling the business end of the athletic department is Taylor.

M.A. (CATFISH) SMITH, Promotions Director. A member of the Texas Sports Hall of Fame, the Panhandle Sports Hall of Fame and the East Texas State Sports Hall of Fame, Catfish is considered a champion throughout the state.

MARIE ABEL — Assistant Business Manager, Ticket Manager. Abel worked in the Baylor alumni office and in budget and purchasing before coming to the athletic department in 1961.

The Waco native is the second Vice-President of the National College Athletic Business Managers Association, the first woman ever elected to the position.

MIKE SCOTT, Sports Information Director. In his first year as Baylor sports information director, Scott took over the position after serving as the school's first fulltime assistant.

Scott, a member of the Football Writers Association of America, is a Kansas native and began his career as a student assistant at Kansas State University.

MAXEY PARRISH, Assistant Sports Information Director. Parrish, a Baylor graduate, is in his first year as assistant SID at Baylor after making the move from the sports information directorship at Centenary College.

TERRY TACKER, Sports Information Assistant. Tacker is in his first year on a full-time basis with the sports information office having graduated from Baylor in 1980.

EDWIN P. HORNER, Southwest Conference Faculty Representative. A professor of law at Baylor, besides serving as the school's faculty representative, he chairs Baylor's athletic council.

Baylor Coaching Staff

GRANT TEAFF, Head Coach. 1980 was another record-setting year for Grant Teaff, now dean of all Southwest Conference coaches.

Teaff's ninth Baylor squad finished 10-1, winning the SWC championship and the automatic host team spot in the 45th annual Cotton Bowl Classic. The crown was the second for a Teaff-coached Baylor team, the first coming in 1974.

Twenty-eight new school records were established by the 1980 Bears, a team picked fifth or sixth in the majority of SWC preseason polls.

Baylor's second winningest coach (behind Morley Jennings' 83-60-6 15-year mark) earned his second SWC championship in his 100th game as head man at the Waco school.

An outstanding athlete at Snyder High School in West Texas, Teaff played two years of junior college ball at San Angelo College and was later an all-Texas conference linebacker selection at McMurry College in Abilene.

Teaff began his coaching career at his alma mater as the nation's youngest head coach. Taking over a team that had been at the bottom of the small college ranks, he posted three strong seasons at McMurry before the school dropped scholarships.

In 1966, Teaff was hired as assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at Texas Tech University.

Teaff's next move was to the head coaching position at Angelo State University, where in three years he led the Rams to a 19-11 mark.

In 1972 Teaff took over the reins at Baylor leading a team with little talent to a 5-6 record.

Baylor football was back in the national limelight when in 1974 the Bears won the Southwest Conference championship and a Cotton Bowl trip.

Due to the Bears rebounding from a 2-9 season the year before to winning their first league title in 50 years, Teaff was voted the National and Southwest Conference Coach of the Year. He also was SWC Coach of the Year in 1972 and shared the same honor in 1979 with Arkansas' Lou Holtz.

This past season he was again tabbed SWC Coach-of-the-Year.

CORKY NELSON, Defensive Coordinator. Since taking over the Baylor defensive fortunes in 1974, Nelson has molded the Bears' 4-3 unit into one of the Southwest Conference's finest.

The former Southwest Texas State all-Lone Star Conference selection coached the 1973 Tyler John Tyler High School team to the class 4A state Championship. That team featured, among others, Heisman Trophy winner Earl Campbell, All-America noseguard Gary Don Johnson and All-SWC tightend Ronnie Lee.

JOHN O'HARA, Offensive Coordinator. An eight year veteran under Teaff, O'Hara came to Baylor from Midland Lee High School where he was offensive coordinator during the 1972-73 season's.

The former Panhandle State All-Conference center began his stint at Baylor as offensive line coach producing such stars as All-Conference David Sledge, Frank Ditta and Bill Glass. He was promoted to his present position in 1979 when Ron Harms took the head coaching job at Texas A&I. With O'Hara at the reins, the 80 Bears scored 315 points, the most of any Teaff team.

COTTON DAVIDSON, Quarterbacks and Receivers. A former Baylor standout, Davidson played 13 seasons of pro ball with the Baltimore Colts, Dallas Texans and Oakland Raiders. Joining the Baylor staff in 1974, Davidson is responsible for the development of all-SWC signal callers Neal and Jay Jeffrey.

The Gatesville native played under former great coaches Hank Stram, Weeb Ewbank and Al Davis and made the Pro Bowl team on two occasions.

BILL HICKS, Defensive line. Hicks, a 1962 Baylor graduate, was a three-year letterman (1959-62) for the Bears, earning all-SWC and Scholastic All-America in 1961. The Little Rock native participated in the 1960 Gator, 1961 Gotham and 1961 North-South all-star contests.

Hicks joined Bill Beall's Baylor staff in 1969 and was one of three holdovers that Teaff retained when he took over in 1972.

BILLY MILLS, Defensive secondary. 1979 was initial year Mills had full responsibility of coaching the defensive secondary and the Bears responded by swiping 23 passes and holding the opposition to a 43.1 completion percentage. The Bears backed that year up in 1980 by leading the nation in interceptions with 29.

WADE TURNER, Administrative Assistant and Recruiting Coordinator. Coached defensive secondary during early Baylor career where he helped Gary Green reach All-America status after 1976 season.

Turner made the move with Teaff to Baylor after serving as his assistant at Angelo State.

BILL LANE, Offensive Line and Tight Ends. Certainly one of the more versatile coaches on Teaff's staff, he's coached both offense and defense while at Baylor. Lane, a 1957 Stephen F. Austin graduate, worked extensively with the Bear offensive line in 1980, developing tight ends Raymond Cockrell, Mike Lively, Sam Houston and freshman Joel Barrett.

Lane also made the move to Baylor with Teaff from Angelo State in 1972.

DUKE CHRISTIAN, Offensive Backfield. Coaching all-league backs Walter Abercrombie and Dennis Gentry and working with quarterback Jay Jeffrey is Christian's responsibility.

The Oklahoma City native began his Baylor coaching career prior to the 1979 season after moving to Waco from Southeastern Oklahoma State.

LARRY BARROS, Strength coach. Baylor's first fulltime strength coach, Barros served the same duties as the University of Oregon in 1979.

T.C. (SKIP) COX, Head Trainer. Cox started at Baylor in February of 1973 after serving the same capacity at North Texas State University.

Baylor Season in Review

10-1-0

BAYLOR 42, LAMAR 7

Baylor opened the 1980 football season with a win that came largely on the strength of big plays — five of them to be exact. The first five of Baylor's six scoring plays against Lamar averaged almost 60 yards. And defensively, the biggest Bear of them all, Mike Singletary, showed what kind of year it would be for the defense on the very first play from scrimmage.

Lamar was camped on the Baylor 7 after an 85-yard kickoff return. The first play was a dive up the middle; Singletary broke through and popped ball carrier Ben Booker hard enough to send the ball sailing backwards and out of bounds on the 27-yard line. Lamar never recovered and it was time for the Bruin bombs to fall.

Baylor's first score came on a 44-yard scamper by Walter Abercrombie, set up by Lester Ward's fumble recovery. Getting the ball back after a high punt snap safety, Jay Jeffrey connected with Mike Fisher for a 42-yard touchdown pass. Jeffrey added Baylor's next TD on an 83-yard run off the option, a school record run from scrimmage. The Bears ended the first half with a David Mangrum to Fisher pass play that scored from 71 yards out.

In the fourth quarter Mangrum found Robert Mitchell open for a TD pass that went 58 yards. Alfred Anderson scored the first of what was to become a long string of touchdowns from three yards out, the Bear's last talley.

When all the dust had settled, Baylor had established a new school record for total offense and showed that the defense that had so many question marks might be solid after all. Jeffrey was named the Southwest Conference Offensive Player of the Week for his effort.

BAYLOR 43, WEST TEXAS STATE 15

In winning their second game of the year, the Bears did just about everything they wanted to do, unless they stopped themselves trying to do it. Baylor rolled up 579 yards in total offense, a great night for any team, but at the same time was penalized 13 times for 146 yards and lost four fumbles. The drives that did not fall apart went for 50, 80, 44, 80, 57 and 68 yards and six touchdowns.

Dennis Gentry got the first score, a six-yard plunge, after a nifty seven play march set up in the first quarter by a 35-yard Gerald McNeil punt return. The 80-yard drive took only four plays as Dennis Gentry scampered 45 yards and Walter Abercrombie scored from the 19 yardline.

In the second quarter Mike Singletary picked off a WTSU pass to set up the Bears' seven play, 44-yard blitz that was capped off by Abercrombie's three-yard dive.

The second half saw Baylor hold West Texas State scoreless while rolling up its own score, starting with the first possession of the period. Quarterback Jay Jeffrey scrambled for 22 yards and then completed a pass to Radar Holt that accounted for another 21 as the Bears took 12 plays to go 80 yards in a drive capped by Abercrombie's two-yard leap into the endzone. That made the score 29-15. Stellar defensive play came from Singletary, who finished with 16 tackles and Joe Campbell who had 9.

A 30-yard TD pass from Jeffrey to Fisher culminated Baylor's next scoring drive and Alfred Anderson finished things up when he carried the ball five times for 35 yards in Baylor's last drive, including a seven-yard burst for the score. Robert Mitchell grabbed a 32-yard pass from David Mangrum enroute.

BAYLOR 11, TEXAS TECH 3

Baylor spent the first two games of the season showing that it had one of the best offenses in the nation, then took one rainy night at Texas Tech showing the defense may be better. In getting Grant Teaff his first Baylor win in Lubbock, the Bears held Tech to 102 yards in total offense and set a school record by allowing -36 yards rushing.

Four of Baylor's points came when snaps sailed over the punter's head and out of the endzone for safeties. The other seven came on a 69-yard, 12 play drive in the fourth quarter, capped by Alfred Anderson's two-yard burst for the score. The big play of the drive was a 25-yard run by Walter Abercrombie that got the ball down to the Tech 15.

The story of the game, however, was the defense, and in particular the front four. Charles Benson, Max McGeary, Tommy Tabor and Joe Campbell played what Teaff called the best game he's ever had from a defensive line. Benson was in on 14 tackles, seven of them behind the line of scrimmage. He also broke up three passes rushing the quarterback. McGeary had ten tackles (eight unassisted and five behind the line), and knocked down a pass and field goal attempt. Campbell had nine tackles, four behind the line and Tabor accounted for four stops, one for a seven-yard loss.

Benson won conference Player of the Week laurels for his game. Abercrombie fell off in his yardage total (19 yards), but had numerous clearing blocks for Dennis Gentry who had 119.

BAYLOR 24, HOUSTON 12

Baylor's fourth win of the season, a 24-12 decision over defending conference champion Houston, was a milestone for the Bears. Not since 1960 had the Bears won their first four games of the year; never had Baylor defeated the Cougars in conference play. More importantly, the win established the Bears as legitimate contenders for the league title.

The first quarter was a matter of both defenses bending but not breaking. Baylor drove to the Houston 20 and 26, but came away empty handed. Houston moved to the Bear 23 and 20 without a score. In the second quarter Cougar drives of ten and 14 yards ended with field goals. But then Baylor caught fire with an 85-yard blitz late in the quarter. It took seven plays, including a 25-yard Jay Jeffrey scramble, to get the score. A 19-yard pass to Radar Holt hit paydirt as the Bears went up 7-6 at the half.

Charged up in the second stanza, the Bears scored in three of their next five possessions. A nine-play 55-yard drive resulted in a 24-yard Robert Bledsoe field goal for one. Another came when Joe Campbell landed on a Cougar fumble on the 16 and Walter Abercrombie waltzed in on the next play. The Cougars fought back to come within five points, 17-12, before the Bruins rolled 71 yards in 10 plays for the TD that iced it away. Alfred Anderson did the honors from nine yards out.

SWC Player of the Week honors went to linebacker Doak Field for his 13 tackles, fumble recovery and blocked kick.

BAYLOR 32, SMU 28

Those who questioned the mettle of Baylor going into the SMU game became believers after the Bears fashioned a shocking come-from-behind win in a battle of unbeatens. Trailing 21-0 early in the second quarter and down again 28-14 with a little over five minutes gone in the third, the Bears rallied again and again.

Three impressive drives had the Mustangs up by 21 before Baylor got in gear. The first scoring drive, helped by two successful fourth and one attempts, went 83 yards in 10 plays. Robert Mitchell grabbed a 37-yard Jay Jeffrey pass to set up Alfred Anderson's 22-yard jaunt around right end. Thomas Earl Young intercepted an SMU aerial on the first play from scrimmage and returned it 20 yards from the SMU endzone. A 15-yard strike to Mike Fisher moved the ball to the 3. Jeffrey scored on an option play in which the entire SMU defense collapsed on Walter Abercrombie's dive over the middle.

Things didn't let up any in the second half. SMU threatened on their first possession, but Mike Singletary and Joe Campbell stopped the Pony runner cold on a fourth and one at the Baylor 10. But quickly SMU had the ball back and marched in to make it 28-14 in the middle of the third quarter.

The Bears battled back on their next series, moving from their 20 to the SMU 18 where Robert Bledsoe nailed a field goal. Later in the third, Baylor moved 51 yards in 11 plays for a score with Jeffrey again doing the honors. A two-point conversion made the score 28-25 with a quarter to play. The winning scoring drive featured two Jeffrey to Radar Holt passes, good for 15 and 13 yards, and a TD plunge by the quarterback, his third.

The game wasn't over even though the scoring was. Trailing 32-28 SMU moved from their own 25 to the Baylor 8 with 21 seconds remaining. On the play that nailed the door shut Baylor tackles Tommy Tabor and Joe Campbell pinched on the SMU center, forcing a fumble that Campbell recovered. Jeffrey was named the league's Player of the Week for his performance.

BAYLOR 46, TEXAS A&M 7

On a day when it looked as if Noah's ark might float by any moment, Baylor scored six touchdowns, a field goal and a safety for a convincing 46-7 victory over the Texas Aggies. The game, played before a record crowd at Kyle Field, was Baylor's biggest ever over Texas A&M in Southwest Conference play.

One writer quipped that Baylor proved that it does not rain on both sides of the field in rainy games. The Bears rolled up 457 yards offense to 234 for A&M. They had 25 first downs, compared to 12. And they did it playing everybody that made the game's travel roster.

Jay Jeffrey opened the onslaught when he moved the Bears 64 yards in 14 plays, putting them in position for Robert Bledsoe to make a 43-yard field goal — against the wind and rain. The lead went to 5-0 when Paul Mergenhausen blocked a punt that rolled out of the endzone for a safety. In the second quarter Jeffrey hit three touchdown passes, one each to Mike Fisher (32 yards) Raymond Cockrell (two yards) and Walter Abercrombie (15 yards). Abercrombie's was a highlight film special. He took a screen pass to the right, broke against the grain and went through the arms of two tacklers and eluded four others.

Whatever comeback notions the Aggies might have had were deflated in the third quarter when Abercrombie raced 71 yards down the sideline for another score. It was the longest of his career. Then it was time for the substitutes to get some playing time. Mike Brannan scored on an 18 yard scamper and David Mangrum passed 12 yards to Gerald McNeil for another.

A&M's only TD came with 24 seconds showing on the clock and a score of Baylor reserves on the field. Abercrombie's performance earned him SWC Player of the Week honors.

BAYLOR 21, TCU 6

It was near the end of the third quarter in Baylor's game with TCU that the Bears realized it was time to wake up and play football. Struggling with a 7-6 lead, Baylor had been flat all afternoon. Then came a voice from above. Was it God, or just the Amon Carter Stadium public address man? "SMU 20, Texas 6," he said. Suddenly the visiting team was rejuvenated. They could take sole possession of the Southwest Conference lead with a win over the Horned Frogs.

On the very next play after the message from heaven, Baylor's Van McElroy intercepted a pass. Then Mike Brannan hit Dennis Gentry on a 40-yard touchdown pass to cap a six-play drive that broke the Frogs' backs. But it had been a struggle.

The first half ended in a scoreless tie as neither team generated much offense. Near the end of the third stanza Baylor finally moved the ball for a score. It was a 3-play 37-yard drive, highlighted by Gentry's 29-yard run, that did the trick. In the score Alfred Anderson went wide on a pitchout from the two. TCU wasted no time in retaliating when they marched for a quick score, but failed to tie the game when Max McGreary blocked the 15th kick of his career.

The announcement of the Texas-SMU score followed, as did Baylor's second scoring drive. With the scoreboard reading 14-6, the Bears moved 45 yards in 11 plays for the score that removed all doubts. It was a methodical drive capped by Anderson's two-yard plunge. For the remaining seven minutes, TCU got little on the ground, quite a few yards in the air, and no points.

BAYLOR 22, SAN JOSE STATE 30

San Jose State ended Baylor's dreams of an undefeated season when they upset the Bears 30-22 at Baylor Stadium. Baylor joined UCLA, North Carolina and their Cotton Bowl opponent, Alabama, on a list of teams that suffered their first defeat Nov. 1.

If there was a silver lining to the dark cloud that hung over the Bears after their loss, it was that the game had no bearing on the Southwest Conference race or a trip to the Cotton Bowl.

San Jose played extremely well, completing 20 of 44 passes and compiling 418 yards in total offense. They had several plays bounce their way. But for the most part, Baylor hurt itself with four interceptions, two fumbles and drives to the San Jose 6-, 22-, 22-, and 24-yard lines that netted no points.

Baylor jumped to an early 12-0 lead with touchdown drives of 80 and 41 yards on their second and third possessions of the game. They increased the lead by 3 with a 22-yard field goal from Tim Strong, who filled in for the injured Robert Bledsoe. San Jose came back with a pair of TDs and field goal of their own to make it 16-15 in the third quarter. (They also missed an extra point.)

The Bears scored again on a 49-yard drive, but the Spartans did it twice and that was the difference. The drives, both in the fourth quarter went for 70 and 22 yards.

BAYLOR 42, ARKANSAS 15

The Bears did a fine job of forgetting whatever went wrong in the San Jose State loss when they met Arkansas the next week before ABC's regional television cameras. They simply buried the Razorbacks, beating them like they've never been beaten since Lou Holtz became their coach. The win clinched Baylor no worse than a tie for the Southwest Conference championship, it was Baylor's first over the Hogs in Waco since 1963.

As lopsided as the score was, it could have been worse. Both of Arkansas' touchdowns were Baylor gifts, and once the Bears fumbled on the Hog one.

The onslaught started on Baylor's first possession. They moved the ball 59 yards in seven plays, the biggest chunk coming from Walter Abercrombie's 29-yard jaunt on an option around right end. Arkansas tied the score at the end of the first quarter, but the Bears ran off 28 points before Arkansas could score again.

The second scoring drive went 42 yards in 8 plays, the third 68 yards in 10 plays, and the fourth 48 yards in four plays. Each one featured Jay Jeffrey's optioning to Dennis Gentry and Abercrombie. The last TD of the three was a perfect strike from Jeffrey to Mike Fisher, who caught the ball at the 17, cut across the field, avoiding three tacklers, and powered into the endzone over another.

The scoreboard lit up again for Baylor early in the second half. They marched 83 yards in 13 plays to the Arkansas 17 where Jeffrey was intercepted. On the ensuing return, the Arkansas defender fumbled, Jeffrey recovered, and the Bears scored from 17 yards out on the next play. Gentry, who finished with 100 yards, threw the clearing block that sent Abercrombie in for the TD.

Baylor subs finished the game and scored once, that coming after a six-play, 45-yard drive, with Alfred Anderson going in from the three. Mike Singletary was chosen the Southwest Conference Defensive Player of the Week and National Lineman of the Week for his play.

BAYLOR 16, RICE 6

It wasn't terribly pretty, but it was all that Baylor needed to sew up an undisputed Southwest Conference title and the host spot in the Cotton Bowl Classic New Year's Day. Mainly on the strength of a stingy defense and a ball control offense that nearly had three runners break the 100 yard mark, the Bears became the league's champions again.

The game started as if it might be a rout. On the first snap Walter Abercrombie went around right end on a sweep. He had picture perfect blocks from Dennis Gentry on the line, Frank Ditta, who pulled from his guard spot, and Radar Holt downfield, to race 79 yards to the Owl one. He scored one play later, but that was the only TD allowed by the pesky Owls all day. Baylor relied on Robert Bledsoe's 43-, 24- and 33-yard field goals and a defense that gave up only a pair of three pointers the rest of the way.

BAYLOR 16, TEXAS 0

Baylor became the first private school since the 1949 Rice Owls to go through the Southwest Conference season undefeated when they beat Texas on a cold, rainy day before a frenzied home crowd.

The Baylor defense shut down the potent Texas running attack led by Donnie Little, and thwarted the passing attempts of Rick McIvor. In all, Bear defenders recorded 12 tackles behind the line for 50 yards in losses. Texas managed a mere nine first downs and 35 yards on the ground. Mike Singletary, Joe Campbell and Charles Benson each recorded 11 tackles to lead the charge.

The first quarter ended in a scoreless tie. The Bears got the only score they needed, with about five minutes left in the half. Dennis Gentry took a pitch to the left, cut up field and then across the grain for a 64-yard scoring romp.

The Bears got some insurance points early in the fourth quarter on an eight-play 70-yard drive that was kept alive by Jay Jeffrey's 26-yard dash up the middle. Baylor faced a third and 11 situation, and the play was a run-pass option. Gentry scored from the 16 five plays later. The final points came in the form of a safety, Baylor's fifth of the year, when the Texas punter bobbled the snap and stepped out of the endzone.

The Cotton Bowl Classic

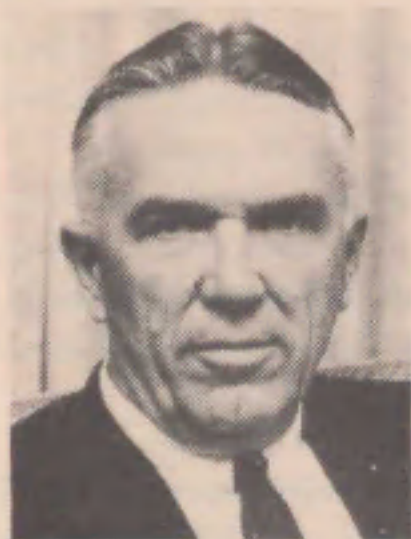

Long before J. R. got shot in "Dallas" and "Gilley's" and "The Urban Cowboy" got together, Texans were getting grandiose ideas and then going out and making them happen.

Such an idea in 1937 was the Cotton Bowl Classic. It was an idea born, as was the Texas Centennial in Dallas' same Fair Park a year earlier, in the depths of a depression when only a Texan would have dared to attempt such a venture.

The first Cotton Bowl Classic matched Texas Christian University and Marquette. It was played in threatening weather and TCU won, 16-6. The crowd, which was estimated at between 12,000 and 15,000, became a part of sports history, however, for from that humble beginning has grown one of college football's great moments.

This year's game will be witnessed by 20 million or more Americans watching CBS Television and another 72,000 in the Stadium. Each of the participating teams will receive checks for around $1.8 million for their 60 minutes of action.

Among the great names who have appeared on the Cotton Bowl turf, which boasted AstroTurf in the 1971 Classic for the first time, are Sammy Baugh, Whizzer White, Holt Rast, John Kimbrough, Ki Aldrich, Joe Rott, Bobby Layne, Norm Van Brocklin, Charlie (Choo Choo) Justice, Doak Walker, Dick Maegle, Jim Brown, Roger Staubach, Lydell Mitchell, Steve Worster, Joe Theismann and Earl Campbell.

SANFORD

The Cotton Bowl game was conceived by the late J. Curtis Sanford, a Dallas oil man and business executive. His promotion, as a private enterprise, of that first game in 1937 matching Sammy Baugh and his TCU teammates against a great Marquette team was the start of Cotton Bowl history.

Later, the Cotton Bowl game became a Dallas civic enterprise. It gained its greatest strength and momentum in 1940 when the Cotton Bowl Athletic Association became an agency of the Southwest Athletic Conference. In 1942 the Conference voted to send its championship team annually to the Cotton Bowl game as the host team.

The Cotton Bowl Classic today is the official Southwest Conference post-season bowl game. No other bowl association or bowl game is tied in so closely with a college athletic conference.

The Cotton Bowl Athletic Association is a non-stock, non-profit organization incorporated under the laws of the State of Texas. All funds remaining after the schools' shares of the receipts are awarded, and after actual operating costs are paid, accrue to the Southwest Conference.

In 1941, the Southwest Conference sponsored its first Cotton Bowl game between Texas A & M, the conference champion, and Fordham University. This game was the first sellout the Cotton Bowl had ever known.

Cotton Bowl Classic All-Stars

Each Cotton Bowl game since the inception of the Classic has produced outstanding football players. The most outstanding players, selected by a poll of the working press covering the game, make up the "Cotton Bowl Classic Honor Roll."

From this group, the Cotton Bowl Classic Committee has chosen All-Star teams representing each decade of Cotton Bowl heroes. The three teams already chosen represent the periods ending in 1949, 1959, and 1969, and a new team will be selected at the close of each ten-year period subsequently — for the 1970's, the 1980's, etc. Two players, a back and a lineman, will be chosen for the Honor Roll following this Cotton Bowl game, and two players will be added in each following year. Then, after the 1979 game, the team representing the 1970's will be chosen from among all those named to the Honor Roll during the decade.

Ends—L. D. Meyer, TCU (1937), who scored all his team's points in the Frogs' 16-6 victory over Marquette in the first Cotton Bowl game ever played; and Holt Rast, Alabama (1942), whose TD run with an intercepted pass decided the weird 29-21 Tide victory over the Texas Aggies.

Tackles—Jim Kekeris, Missouri (1946), led the vicious Missouri running game that piled up 408 yards on the ground but fell short in Texas' 40-27 victory; and Martin Ruby, Texas A&M (1942) and Randolph Field (1944), the only man in bowl history to win the honor while playing for two teams.

Guards—Charles Henke, Texas A&M (1941), an Aggie guard who outshone Fordham's famed linemen in a 13-12 victory in the first Cotton Bowl sell-out; and Jack Freeman, Texas (1943), whose ferocious play was one of the most spectacular showings in Cotton Bowl history as the Longhorns downed Georgia Tech, 14-7.

Center—Ki Aldrich, TCU (1937), the inimitable Frog lineman, another star in the inaugural victory over Marquette.

Quarterback—Sammy Baugh, TCU (1937), the third member of the Frog All-Star trio in the opening game, Baugh climaxed his All-America career with a brilliant passing and punting show, including a 55-yard touchdown throw.

Backs—Bobby Layne, Texas (1946), who put on a fantastic show in Texas' win over Missouri, as he completed 11 of 12 passes (including two for TD's), made four touchdowns and added four extra points; and Glenn Dobbs, Randolph Field (1944), finest of the star-filled service team that tied Texas, 7-7; and John Kimbrough, Texas A&M (1941), one of the great stars of Southwest Conference history, who capped his career with a touchdown and great defensive play in the 13-12 victory over Fordham.

Ends—James (Froggie) Williams, Rice (1950), whose pass receiving, scoring and fine defense led the Owls to a decisive 27-13 win over North Carolina; and Horace (Bud) Sherrod, Tennessee (1951), who led the Vol defense that overcame Texas, 20-14.

Tackles—Richard Chapman, Rice (1954), a tower of defensive strength in the 28-6 victory over Alabama; and Norman Hamilton, TCU (1957), a powerful force in TCU's defense that held Mississippi to 92 yards on the ground, before the narrow 14-13 loss.

Guards—Harley Sewell, Texas (1953), the great Longhorn guard led a vicious defense that netted Tennessee minus yardage for the day and led Texas to a 16-0 victory; and Tony Stremic, Navy (1958), who wasn't supposed to play, and did, leading Navy's "stunting defense," in the defeat of Rice, 20-7.

Center—Joe Watson, Rice (1950), the Owls' great All-America center, who helped the Owls to almost 400 yards on offense in the defeat of North Carolina.

Quarterback—Tom Forrestal, Navy (1958), the slim, sure, swift director of the deadly Navy attack that defeated Rice, 20-7.

Backs—Dick Maegle, Rice (1954) who staged probably the greatest running show in bowl game history in the 28-6 defeat of Alabama, 265 yards gained, an average of 24 yards per carry, and a 95-yard dash (three major bowl records), and he turned in a great defensive game as well; and Jim Brown, Syracuse (1957), the fine all-around athlete who gained 132 yards, scored 21 points, and led the Orange to within a point of TCU in the thrilling 28-27 game; and Andy Kozar, Tennessee (1951), whose grinding jolts into Texas' line wore away an early lead and produced a 20-14 victory in the final quarter.

Ends—Charles (Cotton) Speyrer, Texas (1969), who caught touchdown passes of 78 and 79 yards in a decisive 36-13 victory over Tennessee; and Bob Moses, Texas (1962), whose strong defensive work was a key in a 12-7 upset of Mississippi.

Tackles—Scott Appleton, Texas (1964), voted Most Outstanding Lineman as the Longhorns held onto their No. 1 ranking with a 28-6 victory over No. 2 Navy; and David McCormick, LSU (1966), also voted Most Outstanding Lineman in 14-7 upset of second-ranked Arkansas.

Guards—Tommy Nobis, Texas (1964), a sophomore who played strong offensive and defensive games in the 28-6 victory over Navy; and Bill Hobbs, Texas A&M (1968), leader of A&M defense that held favored Alabama at bay through most of last half.

Center—Ronnie Caveness, Arkansas (1965), who capped All-America season by being named Most Outstanding Lineman in national championship team's 10-7 victory over Nebraska.

Quarterback—Duke Carlisle, Texas (1964) who passed for touchdowns of 58 and 63 yards and ran one over from nine yards out in a brilliant display of leadership as national champion Texas beat Navy, 28-6.

Backs—Ernie Davis, Syracuse (1960), led the unbeaten national champions to a 23-14 victory over Texas by scoring two touchdowns and two two-point conversions, also intercepting a pass; Kent Lawrence, Georgia (1967), ran 74 yards for a TD on the game's second play in 24-9 victory over SMU and was named game's outstanding back, and Joe Labruzzo, LSU (1966), who scored both second-quarter touchdowns and was voted the game's outstanding back in 14-7 upset over second-ranked Arkansas.

Duke Carlisle, voted the outstanding quarterback of the '60s in Cotton Bowl competition, releases what is to be a 63-yard touchdown pass as the Longhorns whipped Navy 28-6 in the 1964 Classic.

Meet The Cotton Bowl Team Of The 1970s

by Wilbur Evans

Twenty-one of the twenty-five players named to the Cotton Bowl All-Stars of the 1970s were members of victorious teams. Ironically, the honored quarterback gained recognition in defeat. He is Eddie Phillips (Texas, 1971), who established the Bowl's total offense record before an injury sidelined him mid-way of the fourth quarter in the loss to Notre Dame.

Three defensive players gained acclaim in losing causes and each was named the outstanding player in his respective game. Linebacker Bob Olson of Notre Dame was cited for his play in the 1970 loss to Texas.

Baylor's Ken Quesenberry, a defensive back gained a like honor in the 1975 defeat by Penn State, while Linebacker David Hodge attained that recognition in the 1979 loss to Notre Dame. Hodge was credited with six unassisted tackles, nine assisted and one pass interception. An All-American player, he returns to face Nebraska in the 1980 Classic.

Named along with Phillips on the 1970s offensive unit is Cotton Speyrer (Texas, 1970), who has the unmatched distinction of being honored on teams of two decades. He was chosen for the Cotton Bowl All-Stars of the 1960s for his record-catching performance against Tennessee in the 1969 victory. He caught four passes for 70 yards in the 1970 victory, a fourth-down catch on his knees keeping Texas' winning touchdown drive intact on the Notre Dame 2 with 1:08 remaining.

Others honored on the 1970s offensive team are Ken MacAfee, Notre Dame (1978), tight end; Jerry Sisemore, Texas (1973) and Bobby Wuensch, Texas (1970), tackles; Tom Rafferty, Penn State (1975), R. C. Thielemann, Arkansas (1976) and Ernie Hughes, Notre Dame (1978), guards; Bill Wyman, Texas (1973), center; Steve Worster, Texas (1970), Lydell Mitchell, Penn State (1972), and Vagas Ferguson, Notre Dame (1970), running back.

Eight of the eleven defensive players chosen were selected as the outstanding defensive performer in years cited. Others in addition to Olson, Quesenberry and Hodge are Bruce Bannon, Penn State, defensive end (1972); Linebackers Randy Braband, Texas (1973) and Hal McAfee, Arkansas (1976) and Defensive Backs Clarence Ellis, Notre Dame (1971) and Mark Mohr, Houston (1977).

Defensive tackles honored are Mike Hartenstine, Penn State (1975) and Wilson Whitley, Houston (1977), both of them All-America. The defensive guard is John Bell, Nebraska (1974).

Seven of the ten schools participating in the Cotton Bowl games of that decade qualified players for the two-platoon teams. The more frequent exposure enabled Texas to place seven players in its six visits. Six Notre Dame players gained recognition for four appearances, while Penn State qualified five, Houston three, Arkansas two, Baylor and Nebraska, one each.

All three of the running backs were acclaimed the outstanding performers in games indicated. None of the other six players so honored during the decade achieved All-Star selection. Three quarterbacks and three running backs with that honor were prominent in the balloting, however. The quarterbacks are Alan Lowry, Texas (1973), Tom Shuman, Penn State (1975) and Joe Montana, Notre Dame (1979). The running backs are Tony Davis, Nebraska (1974), Ike Forte, Arkansas (1976) and Alois Blackwell, Houston (1977).

Phillips rushed for 164 yards and completed 10 of 27 passes for 199 yards and one touchdown in the 1970 loss to Notre Dame.

Worster carried 20 times for 155 yards in Texas' come-from-behind victory in 1970. His fake into the line enabled the Longhorns to run a cross-buck for the winning touchdown that clinched the national championship.

Two years later Mitchell carried 27 times for 146 yards and scored a touchdown in Penn State's 30-6 conquest of Texas. Ferguson also earned his place on the team by a great performance against undefeated Texas in 1978. He ran 21 times for 100 yards and two touchdowns and added another on a 17-yard pass from Montana. Texas' Earle Campbell, who gained 116 yards in a losing cause got considerable support.

In that game Ken MacAfee earned the tight end position on the All-Star team with four receptions for 45 yards and good blocking in the Notre Dame rushing total of 243.

Notre Dame's Jim Yoder, who caught a go-ahead touchdown pass in the 1970 loss was the outstanding punter of the decade, with an average of 45.7 on seven kicks in the 1971 contest. One was a quick kick for 74 yards.

Al Vitiello of Penn State edged Arkansas' Steve Little for placement kick honors. The 5-7 Nittany Lion kicked field goals of 29, 21 and 37 yards and added three extra-points in the victory over Texas.

Arkansas' McAfee earned the most decisive endorsement for outstanding performance in annual balloting at the Cotton Bowl Classic. He received 88 of a possible 93 votes after recovering two Georgia fumbles on the Bulldogs' 15 and 13-yard lines that enabled Arkansas to gain a halftime tie and ultimate victory in 1976.

Notre Dame's Ellis was named on more ballots than any other player in the selection of the two teams for the 1970's.

Additional players receiving prominent mention in the balloting: Offensive linemen: Larry DiNardo, Notre Dame (1970); Travis Roach, Texas (1973); Bob McKay, Texas (1970); Dave Joyner, Penn State (1972); Val Belcher, Houston (1979); Richard LaFargue, Arkansas (1976) and Chuck Brown, Houston (1979). Defensive linemen: Mike McCoy, Notre Dame (1970); Scott Palmer, Texas (1970) and John Dutton, Nebraska (1974); Ross Browner, Notre Dame (1974). Linebackers: Bob Golic, Notre Dame (1978) and Wade Johnston, Texas (1974). Defensive backs: Tom Campbell, Texas (1970); Steve Wade, Alabama (1973); Ted Burgmeier, Notre Dame (1978) and Johnny Johnson, Texas (1978)

1973—Texas 17, Alabama 13. Exciting "did-he-or-didn't he?" game where Texas' Alan Lowry scored winning TD on 34-yard run down left sidelines with 3:20 remaining. Press-box cameras created furor over whether Lowry stepped out of bounds at 10-yard line. Texas overcame 10-0 and 13-3 deficits in fifth straight Classic appearance. Roosevelt Leaks (120 yards on 25 carries) and Lowry (117 on 16) paced Texas in battle of Wishbones, while Terry Davis led Alabama in early domination of play. For fourth straight year, the team that got off to 3-0 lead finally lost the game. Greg Gantt kicked Classic record 50-yard field goal on Tide's first possession; Alabama raised it to 10-0 on Steve Wade's 42-yard interception and Wilbur Jackson's 31-yard TD run on first down. Texas scored on a 59-yard drive in the third to set the stage for the 80-yard march late in the game. Alabama stormed back after Texas' last touchdown, driving 47 yards to the Texas 43 before Randy Braband stopped Jackson for a loss of a yard on fourth and one. Braband and Lowry were voted outstanding defensive and offensive players. It marked the fourth coaching meeting between Darrell Royal and Paul Bryant, and left the record 3-0-1 in Royal's favor.

COACHES: Texas — Darrell Royal; Alabama — Paul Bryant. WEATHER: Partly cloudy to cloudy, cool. OUTSTANDING PLAYERS: Texas — Lowry, Braband, Leaks, Terry Melancon, Glen Gaspard; Alabama — Wade, Davis, Dexter Wood, Randy Hall, Chuck Strickland.

1974 — Nebraska 19, Texas 3. For the fifth straight year, one team took a 3-0 lead and then lost the game. Texas seemed to have momentum when Nebraska failed to score on four tries from the Longhorn one-yard line as the first half ended in a 3-3 tie. Texas took the second-half kickoff and moved to the Nebraska 22 before an interception by Bob Thornton stopped the drive. Texas drove again on its next possession and was short on a field-goal effort. Thornton returned it 41 yards and it was all Nebraska from there in. Nebraska scored two touchdowns in a little over three minutes as sub quarterback Steve Runty and running back Tony Davis got the Cornhusker offense in high gear. The first was a 59-yard drive after Thornton's return, the second a 19-yard march after John Bell recovered a Texas fumble. Some 2,500 tickets were unsold, ending a string of 12 straight sellouts. Davis carried 28 times for 106 yards, scored a touchdown and was named outstanding offensive player. Texas linebacker Wade Johnston was named outstanding defensive player. It marked the sixth straight Cotton Bowl appearance for Texas, a record consecutive-games appearance for a school in a major bowl game.

COACHES: Nebraska — Tom Osborne; Texas — Darrell Royal. WEATHER: Partly cloudy, 30 degrees, wind 10-15 mph. OUTSTANDING PLAYERS: Nebraska — Davis, Buntz, Thornton, Bell, David Humm, John Dutton, Steve Manstedt, Randy Borg; Texas — Johnston, Glen Gaspard, Joe Bob Bizzell.

1975 — Penn State 41, Baylor 20. For the sixth straight year, the team scoring first in the contest went on to lose. Baylor fullback Steve Beaird's four-yard plunge helped the Bears to a 7-3 halftime margin, but a dazzling 38-point second-half display by the Nittany Lions spelled doom for the hosts. Wingback Jimmy Cefalo scored twice in the second half on a three-yard run and a 49-yard scoring toss from quarterback Tom Shuman, who also added a two-yard TD run, Chris Bahr and John Reihner kicked field goals and Joe Jackson closed the scoring with a Cotton Bowl record 50-yard kickoff return with seconds remaining in the game as Baylor attempted an onside kickoff. Sprinkled among the Nittany Lion fireworks were a pair of touchdown passes for the Bears, one for 35 yards from Neal Jeffrey to Ricky Thompson, and the other covering 11 yards from Mark Jackson to Thompson. Penn State's 41 points marked a new high for the Cotton Bowl as the Nittany Lions rolled to 23 first downs, second highest total in Cotton Bowl history, and 491 yards total offense, fourth highest ever. A crowd of 67,500 looked on as Shuman, who connected on 10 of 20 passes for 226 yards and a TD, was named the game's outstanding offensive player, and Baylor defensive back Ken Quesenberry was tabbed the top defensive performer after making seven unassisted tackles, assisting on five more and breaking up a pass. The contest marked Baylor's first Cotton Bowl trip ever after its first Southwest Conference championship in 50 seasons.

1976 — Arkansas 31, Georgia 10. The 11th-ranked Georgia Bulldogs, making their second Cotton Bowl appearance, wasted little time jumping in front of the favored Razorbacks. Allan Leavitt's 35-yard field goal climaxing the game's opening drive. Then midway through the second quarter, quarterback Matt Robinson found Gene Washington on a 21-yard touchdown strike and the Southeastern Conference visitors widened their lead. But from then on it was all Arkansas as the Razorback defense, led by senior linebacker Hal McAfee, who twice recovered Georgia fumbles and intercepted a pass, stiffened through the remainder of the contest allowing the Razorback offense to come to the fore. Steve Little's 39-yard field goal late in the second quarter brought Arkansas to within seven but the first half doings weren't over yet. With 50 seconds left and the ball on their own 20, the Bulldogs tried one of their patented "trick plays". But the resulting fumble gave Arkansas the ball and two plays later Ike Forte crashed the final yard to tie the count at halftime. The third period was scoreless but the Razorbacks tallied three times in the final 15 minutes. Rolland Fuchs going over from five yards out, Michael Forrest bulling in from the one and Forte capping the afternoon's scoring with a six-yard sweep with just over a minute left to play. A crowd of 74,500 witnessed the contest which saw the team which scored first lose for the seventh consecutive time. Forte, voted the game's outstanding offensive player, rushed for 119 yards on 24 carries, both Arkansas bowl records, while Little tied a Cotton Bowl record with his four conversions. McAfee got the nod as the top defensive player, tacking on 12 tackles to his turnover count. The victory upped 10th-ranked Arkansas' Cotton Bowl record to 2-3-1, while Georgia fell to 1-1.

1977 — Houston 30, Maryland 21. Houston's Cougars, ranked No. 4 and the champion of the Southwest Conference in their baptismal season, were matched with undefeated No. 5 Maryland. Typical of their contemptuous nature enroute to the Cotton Bowl, the Cougars jumped to a 21-0 lead with 51 seconds still remaining in the first quarter. Fullback Dyrall Thomas started the spree with an 11-yard TD run, and Alois Blackwell followed with scoring jaunts of 33 and one-yard runs. A rout appeared in the making. Maryland checked the trend in the second quarter with a six-yard scoring run by Quarterback Mark Manges, but Houston matched that with a 33-yard touchdown pass from Quarterback Danny Davis to Don Bass, the split end. Houston missed the extra-point but sat on a 27-7 half-time advantage. Maryland became assertive in the third quarter, with Manges running and passing well. Denied at the Houston 4 mid-way of the period, the Terps capitalized on their next opportunity after Guard Larry Seder recovered a Thomas fumble on the Houston 35 three minutes later. Manges hit Eric Sievers with two completions, the last for 11 yards and a touchdown that cut the margin to 27-14 going into the final period. Three minutes later Lineman Chip Garber recovered a Blackwell fumble on the Cougar 30. Manges passed to Tim Wilson for 15 yards and six plays later the Maryland fullback scored from the one, and the Terps were back in the battle at 27-21 with 8:46 remaining. Maryland had the momentum but succeeded only in crowding the Cougars' backs to the wall. It was third-and-six from the Houston 11 when Davis escaped a goal-line trap and completed an 11-yard pass to Robert Lavergne, who got the first down at the Cougar 24. Only 4:58 remained, and the Cougars used all but 18 seconds as Lennard Coplin's 28-yard field goal made the final tally read 30-21. For the first time in eight consecutive Cotton Bowl Classics the team which scored first went on to win the game.

1978—Notre Dame 38, Texas 10. Notre Dame accepted the Cotton Bowl bid to play no. 1 ranked Texas with the avowed intention of winning themselves another national championship. And they did just that, combining a magnificent defense headed by Lombardi Trophy recipient Ross Browner and his fellow All-America Bob Golic with the running of Vagas Ferguson and the usual Notre Dame stable of good running backs. Texas, which had won 11 straight in a cinderella season under first year coach Fred Akers, turned the ball over six times and was never a factor once the big and fast Irish machine got rolling. Heisman Trophy winner Earl Campbell was a standout in defeat, gaining 116 yards on 29 carries, but Ferguson was named the game's outstanding back with 100 yards on 21 tries and three touchdowns. Golic made 17 tackles to gain line honors.

COACHES: Notre Dame — Dan Devine; Texas — Fred Akers. WEATHER: Cold, Sunshine. OUTSTANDING PLAYERS: Notre Dame — Ferguson, Golic, Joe Montana, Ken McAfee, Ernie Hughes, Dave Huffman, Browner; Texas — Campbell, Russell Erxleben.

1979—Notre Dame 35, Houston 34. Notre Dame made one of the great comebacks in Bowl history, scoring in the final seconds for a 35-34 victory. The game was played in icy, cold weather with temperature around 20 degrees at kickoff, and a below zero chill factor. The Fighting Irish jumped off to a 12-0 first quarter lead, taking advantage of Houston fumbles each time. Nine plays later after UH fumbled, Joe Montana kept for three yards and a touchdown. Houston bobbled the ensuing kickoff and Bob Crable recovered for the Irish at the Houston 25. Six plays later Pete Buchanan rammed over from the one margin. Then the momentum shifted. Three plays after a ND fumble Danny Davis found Willis Adams in the end zone for a 15-yard scoring pass. Then midway through the second quarter David Hodge recovered another fumble at the Notre Dame 21. Six plays and Randy Love atoned scored from the one on a fourth down play to give UH a 14-12 lead. Two Ken Hatfield field goals made it 20-12 Houston at halftime.

With just more than seven minutes to play, the Cougars held a commanding 34-12 lead. A Cotton Bowl victory seemed sure. No one told Notre Dame. First Notre Dame's Steve Cichy returned it 33 yards for a touchdown. With 7:35 to go in the game. Montana hit Vagas Ferguson for the two-point conversion. Then the Irish drove 61 yards in five plays. Montana hit Kris Haines for the two-point conversion and with 4:15 remaining the Irish trailed 28-34.

Houston had the ball with 1:50 left but Cougars were forced to punt. When Notre Dame was offside, UH Head Coach Bill Yeoman chose to go for the first down on fourth and one at his own 29-yard line. Emmett King was short. Four plays later, with 0:02 on the clock, Montana hit Kris Haines to tie the score. Notre Dame was penalized five yards for being offside, but Dallas' own Joe Unis still kicked the extra point to give ND an improbable win under impossible conditions.

COACHES: Notre Dame — Dan Devine; Houston — Bill Yeoman; WEATHER: Extremely cold and icy, windy. OUTSTANDING PLAYERS: Notre Dame: Jerome Heavens, Montana, Cichy, Haines, Unis; Houston: Danny Davis, Kenny Hatfield, David Hodge.

1980 — Houston 17, Nebraska 14. Quarterback Terry Elston came off the bench to spark the No. 6 ranked Houston Cougars to a 17-14 victory over the No. 7 Nebraska Cornhuskers in one of the most thrilling finishes ever in the Cotton Bowl 44-year history. The 6-4 Elston waited until the final 12 seconds to come up with the winning toss, a 6-yard touchdown pass that bounced off a defender and finally settled in the arms of wide receiver Eric Herring. That desperation fourth-down throw brought Houston the win. It also was Elston's fourth "save" for the Cougars, having Super Sub performances in earlier victories over Texas A&M, Florida and Texas Tech during the regular campaign. The talented junior was selected the game's Outstanding Offensive player for his last-second heroics, and pushed Houston's season record to 11-1, while Nebraska fell to 10-2. It also was ironic that Houston had lost the 1979 Cotton Bowl to Notre Dame when the Irish pulled out a last-second victory on a similar play.

The contest, played in perfect weather, was a three-quarter defensive battle, and the game seemed destined for a 7-7 tie. But in the final period, UH took the lead 10-7 on Kenny Hatfield's 41-yard field goal with just 8:25 remaining. Nebraska roared back for a 14-10 margin, as Jeff Quinn found Jeff Finn on a 6-yard TD reception. But Elston, who replaced Starter Delrick Brown in the second quarter, then marched Houston 61-yards under pressure to the winning points. Until that last-quarter flurry, the only scores had come on a 9-yard run by Cornhusker Tailback Jarvis Redwine late in the first quarter and a eight-yard run by Elston early in the second period.

Player Sketches

- 2 UMPHREY, WOODY — Punter — 22, 6-0, 174, Sr-2L, Bourbonnais, Ill . . . Has been the Tide's punter for three straight years and averaged 39.7 this year. Kicks with good hang time and is effective in downing back deep in enemy territory. His kicking against Penn State in 1979 Sugar Bowl games one of keys to winning and going on to national title.
- 3 KIM, PETER — Place-kicker — 21, 5-8, 164, Soph, Honolulu, Hawaii . . . Led team in scoring with 71 points, hitting 35 of 37 extra points and 12 of 18 field goals. Field goals were from 49, 47, 45, 41, 38, 35, 33, 32, 31, 28, 24 and 23 yards. Broke Bama regular season record with four FGs vs. Tennessee. His six misses were from 51, 50, 50, 45, 37 and 23 yards. Hit 33 straight extra points until miss against Auburn that would have tied him with Alan McElroy for record. Transfer from University of Hawaii, and was born in Seoul, Korea, and moved to Hawaii at age 14.
- 4 JONES, JOEY — Split End — 18, 5-9, 166, Fr., Mobile . . . This speed merchant was a prep All-American and should catch a lot of passes before he is finished. Caught three this year for 43 yards, including a key 17-yarder on his knees against Auburn that kept a key drive alive.

BRAGGS

- 5 JACOBS, DON — Quarterback — 22, 6-2, 181, Sr-1L, Scottsboro . . . Knee surgery took away a step of his quickness, but Don started every game except LSU this year. Gained 339 yards on 91 carries for a 3.5 average and scored twice in 1980. Was 32 of 76 passing for 531 yards and four TDs and suffered only one interception. For his career, gained 833 yards rushing on 175 carries, was 42 of 99 passing 724 yards and six TDs, with three intercepts.
- 9 HARRIS, JIM BOB — Free Safety — 21, 6-2, 188, Jr-2L, Athens, Ga . . . Two-time All-SEC performer by UPI. Made 26 tackles in 1980 and had three interceptions for 29 yards in returns, broke up three passes and recovered one fumble. Came to Bama as a quarterback but moved to defense as a freshman.

- 10 LEWIS, WALTER — Quarterback — 18, 6-1, 181, Frosh, Brewton . . . Probably the quarterback of the future at Alabama. Excellent speed and quickness and lifted Tide to 34-18 season closing victory over Auburn. For the year, carried 45 times for 219 yards, a 4.8 average and two scores. Hit on 10 of 18 passes for 118 yards. Against Auburn, came in early and responded with 133 total yards rushing and 98 net, including 73-yard dash. Was four of five passing for 42 yards. Also had a 40-yard quick kick, and scored from the one after a great fake. Won the national punt, pass and kick contest as an eight-year old youngster. Played in eight games.
- 11 COLEY, KEN — Quarterback — 19, 5-11, 188, Soph-1L, Birmingham . . . Injured much of the season, but started against LSU and quickly raced 35-yards for a TD, then got hurt and missed the last two games. Carried 38 times for 164 yards, a 4.3 average and scored twice. Attempted only one pass and it was incomplete. Also returned three punts for 16 yards. Was the nation's leading punt returner at mid-season of 1979 as a freshman when he broke his leg against Tennessee. It is hoped he will be ready to play in the Cotton Bowl.
- 14 GRAY, ALAN — Quarterback — 21, 6-2, 184, Jr-1L, Tampa, Fla . . . Excellent option runner, Alan carried 36 times for 221 yards, a 6.1 average this year, and scored one touchdown. Was one of five in passing for 15 yards. MVP of last spring game.
- 15 WILCOX, TOMMY — Strong Safety — 21, 5-11, 187, Soph-1L, Harahan, La . . . One of the finest defensive backs in Alabama history after just two years. Named Freshman of the Year in SEC in 1979 and had an even better year in 1980 and is a two-time All-SEC pick. Made 75 tackles in 1980, fourth best on the team, including two sacks of 17 yards, broke up six passes, and recovered two fumbles. Was in on 19 tackles against Notre Dame. Great at the blitz. Was great prep quarterback. Got his first collegiate start against Baylor last year.
- 18 TUCKER, RICKY — Defensive Back — 21, 6-0, 171, Sr-3L, Florence . . . A four-year starter, Ricky is so versatile he can play all four secondary spots and often does. Started nine games this year. Was in on 46 tackles, broke up six passes, caused three fumbles and recovered one. Led team in interceptions with four and returned them 58 yards.

CASTILLE

CLEMENTS

- 19 CASTILLE, JEREMIAH — Cornerback — 20, 5-10, 171, Soph-1L, Phenix City . . . Made three interceptions, including a very big one against Auburn that set up Bama's first score. Blocked a Vanderbilt punt and ran it in for a 43-yard TD. Started eight of the 10 games he played in, missing the Kentucky game. Made 42 tackles, had two sacks for two yards in losses, broke up six passes, and in addition to the punt block, blocked a field goal.
- 23 PERRIN, BENNY — Defensive Back — 21, 6-2, 176, Jr., Decatur . . . Considered a starter although only started one game, making 17 tackles on the season, with one for a nine yard loss.
- 24 JONES, JOE — Running Back — 23, 5-11, 189, Sr-2L, Thomaston, Ga . . . Started all 11 games in 1980 and gained 304 yards on 56 carries for a 5.5 average and scored twice. Caught three passes for 23 yards. Scored against Baylor last year on a one-yard run.

CLINE

- 25 PATRICK, LINNIE — Running Back — 18, 5-10, 170, Frosh, Jasper . . . Third top rusher with 361 yards on 50 carries for outstanding 7.2 average and three scores as a rookie. Played in 10 games, missing Vanderbilt with injury. One of the nation's top recruits last year. Was Alabama's preathlete of the year last year by Hertz, after fabled prep career at Walker County High.
- 33 JACKSON, BILLY — Fullback — 21, 6-0, 214, Sr-2L, Phenix City . . . Two-year starter, he led Alabama in rushing in 1980 with 606 yards on 101 carries for a 5.4 average and scored five TDs. Caught three passes for 49 yards. Gained 120 yards against Arkansas in last year's Sugar Bowl and was runnerup to Major Ogilvie in the MVP balloting. Has excellent speed. For his career has gained 1,404 yards on 256 carries for a 5.2 average and scored seven touchdowns. Started every game last two seasons.

FAGAN

- 35 FAGAN, JEFF — Running Back — 19, 6-1, 198, Soph-1L, Hollywood, Fla. . . Big, strong and fast, Jeff carried the ball 10 times for 116 yards and an 11.6 average in 1980 and scored twice. Had a 41-yard TD run against Kentucky and a 15-yard TD run against Vanderbilt. Key man on specialty teams where he made eight tackles on kickoffs. Has an outstanding future.
- 37 COLLINS, EARL — Fullback — 20, 6-3, 190, Soph, Mobile . . . Was a second unit tight end early this year, then got hurt against Rutgers when it was believed he had suffered a broken neck. Tests later showed a birth abnormality and he missed just two games. Moved to fullback for the Auburn game after injuries hit there. Ran six times for 52 yards, including a 45-yard sprint for a touchdown in the second quarter against Auburn. Has outstanding speed and may have found a home at fullback.

JACKSON

JACOBS

J. JONES

- 39 JUNIOR, E. J. — Defensive End — 21, 6-3, 237, Sr-3L, Nashville, Tn . . . This great player is considered one of the three best defensive players in the nation by the pro scouts. Alabama Personalities

DR. HOWARD B. GUNDY, Acting President. The University of Alabama has discovered a sure way to handle problems. You call on Howard Gundy. Several times he has been called "from the bullpen" and recorded a victory. As the acting President, Dr. Gundy has solidified the entire campus with his leadership as a new president is being chosen.

He first came as Dean of the School of Social Work, then became Academic Vice-President before moving to Washington to direct the office there. He came back as a vice-president and then became a special consultant to the President before being named acting president. He has a bachelor's and Ph.D. from Syracuse University.

An avid golfer, he won the "Acting President" division of the 1980 Bear Bryant Golf Classic. It was a lock. And he shot a 79!

DR. CHARLEY SCOTT, Faculty Chairman of Athletics. Recognized nationally as one of the smartest men in dealing with the problems and solutions of intercollegiate athletics, Dr. Scott has served on the NCAA Council and presently is on the NCAA Executive Committee. He also chairs several important Southeastern Conference committees, and is a pillar of strength for the University. He serves as Vice-President of Academic Affairs during his spare time.

SAM BAILEY, Associate Athletic Director. Sam has been with Coach Bryant since 1956, when he joined the staff at Texas A&M and then moved to Alabama in 1958. He has been Assistant Head Football Coach, but in the early 1970s, moved out of coaching into a full-time administrative position and has projected Alabama's all-sports program to one of the nation's finest.

CHARLEY THORNTON, Assistant Athletic Director for Public Relations. In 1974 named the nation's outstanding sports information director and also elected to the Hall of Fame. Served six years as chairman of the NCAA Public Relations committee and has been on numerous other NCAA and SEC committees. Worked at Arkansas State, Tulane, and the NCAA before joining Alabama in 1964. Left to become director of athletics at the University of Miami in 1979, but resigned after three months and returned to Alabama.

CLEM GRYSKA, Assistant Athletic Director and Bama's overall director of recruiting. Clem played football at Alabama under Coach Frank Thomas and was a member of the 1946 Tide Rose Bowl team, then played his last two years under Coach Red Drew in 1947-48. Had a very successful high school coaching career at Emma Sansom in Gadsden and Huntsville high school, being elected president of the Alabama High School Coaches Association. Joined the Alabama staff in 1960 and was an on-the-field coach until elevated to a full time administrative position.

C. D. TATUM, JR., Athletic Business Manager. He joined the Alabama athletic family in 1973, coming from the University's central administration where he had served as treasurer. He owned an automobile dealership in Tuscaloosa for many years, then sold out in 1962 and joined the University staff. He handled all ticket sales, travel plans and business affairs for the department.

JIM GOOSTREE, Head Athletic Trainer. One of the nation's finest trainers, Jim has instituted one of the finest athletic medicine programs in America for the Crimson Tide overall sports program. Joined the Bama staff in 1957, one year before Coach Bryant became the head coach. An outstanding athlete, Jim is the best golfer on the UA staff.

MIKE MARKS, Strength Coach. A two-time NCAA finalist in the shot put while at Oklahoma State, Mike serves as the Tide strength coach and conducts daily workouts in a modernistic weight room, and also sends the team through stretching and flexibility exercises before each practice and game.

GARY WHITE, Bama's Academic Advisor and Administrative Assistant. Was a manager for the football team while in school, then worked for the Dallas Cowboys before returning to Alabama. Received his doctorate last summer and now is Dr. Gary White.

JACK PERRY, Sports Information Director. Just joined the Alabama staff in mid-season, after serving at the University of Kentucky for 11 years. Mainly handling basketball and other sports at present time, plus publications.

Alabama Coaching Staff

PAUL W. BRYANT, Head Coach and Athletic Director. The 1981 Cotton Bowl will be the 29th bowl game that Alabama's legendary coach has taken part in, 27 as a head coach, one as a player and one as an assistant coach. It also will be the 22nd straight bowl game for his Crimson Tide team.

"Bear's" phenomenal career now spans five decades as a head coach, the 1980 season being his 36th year as a head coach and his 23rd with the Crimson Tide. His overall record is 305-79-16 (if win over Auburn) and his record at Alabama is 214-40-8 (if win over Auburn).

His teams have won six National Championships in 1961, 1964, 1965, 1973, 1978 and 1979, all at Alabama. His record in bowl games is 31-11-2. In the Cotton Bowl he is 1-2, his 1951 Kentucky team beat TCU, 20-7, his 1967 Alabama team lost to Texas A&M, 20-16, and his 1972 Bama team lost to Texas, 17-13.

Amos Alonzo Stagg won more football games than any college coach in history, 314, but it is possible that Bryant could surpass Stagg late in 1981.

A native of Moro Bottom, Ark., Bryant attended Fordyce high school, and Alabama. He was the "other end" on Alabama's 1933-34-35 teams that compiled a 23-3-2 record and featured the great Don Hutson.

At Alabama Coach Bryant has built one of the finest overall sports programs in the nation, excellent facilities, a program that is completely self-supporting, and over the last decade has won more games than any school in the nation, going 103-16-1 in the 1970s.

Bryant has won virtually every honor that his profession can bestow, plus numerous awards and honors for his generous support of charities. Next year he will be the chairman of a $150 million fund raising effort by the University of Alabama.

KEN DONAHUE, Assistant Head Coach and Defensive Coordinator. He played under General Bob Neyland at Tennessee and played on the Vol team that beat Texas, 20-14, on January 1, 1951 in the Cotton Bowl. Honored in 1975 as the "Working Coach of the Year" in the Southeastern Conference, Donahue is a tireless worker and one of the most dedicated men in the history of coaching. He served as line coach at Memphis State from 1951 until 1955, then re-joined his alma mater as an assistant coach for five seasons. He then went to Mississippi State for three seasons before joining the Alabama staff in 1964.

MAL MOORE, Offensive Coordinator and Quarterback Coach. A member of the 1961 Tide national championship team, he served as an assistant at Montana State in 1963, then returned to Alabama as a graduate assistant in 1964, then served a short tour of duty in the Air Force. He re-joined the Tide in time for the 1965 season and has been full-time since then. Considered one of the top offensive coordinators in the nation, he has done a masterful job over the years of helping build powerful Tide offensive teams.

SYLVESTER CROOM, An All-American at center his senior season at Alabama, "Sly" also won the coveted Jacobs Blocking Award as the best in the SEC in 1974. A three year letterman, he played briefly with the New Orleans Saints, then joined the Tide staff in the spring of 1976. He works with the defensive ends. During his three years at Alabama as a player, Tide teams went 32-4, won three straight SEC titles and the 1973 UPI national championship. He holds a bachelor's degree in history and a master's in education.

LOUIS CAMPBELL, An All-Southwest Conference defensive back at Arkansas during his playing days in 1970-71-72, Louis coaches the defensive secondary for Bama and is one of the bright young coaches in the nation. Named the MVP of the 1971 Liberty Bowl game. Served on the UA staff in 1973-74 as a graduate assistant, then elevated to full-time status in 1975. He left in 1977 to join the SMU staff, then returned to Alabama in the spring of 1980.

K. J. LAZENBY, A three-year letterman at offensive tackle for the Tide from 1974 through 1976, and was second team All-SEC. He was a graduate assistant in 1977-78, then was named fulltime in 1979. He worked with the Crimson Tide offensive line. He holds a degree in biology and a master's in education administration.

BOBBY MARKS, An All-SWC end at Texas A&M under Coach Bryant who helped the Aggies win the 1956 conference title. He was a high school coach in Texas from 1959 until 1968, when he joined the A&M staff for three years before coming to Alabama in 1972. His son, Keith, is a split end on this year's team.

BRYANT POOL, "Tex" as he is known around the office, played at East Texas State University and graduated in 1973. He was a graduate at Bama in 1974-75, then left for one year to coach at Mississippi Gulf Coast Junior College. He rejoined the UA staff in 1977 and has been on the staff since then. He was a four-year letter winner at ETSU and all-conference.

DEE POWELL, Honored in 1979 as the "Working Coach of the Year" in the SEC, Dee was a three-year letterman at Texas A&M under Coach Bryant. He works with the offensive line. He first came to Alabama in 1958 but left shortly after that to serve in the Air Force as a fighter pilot. He then re-joined the staff in 1963 and 1964, then left to return to A&M on Gene Stallings' staff and worked there eight years as the defensive coordinator. He then moved on to SMU in 1973 before Coach Bryant asked him to re-join the Tide staff in 1974.

JEFF ROUZIE, Works with Tide linebackers after having been a great one for Alabama before a knee injury sidetracked him. Jeff was the Outstanding Defensive Player in Alabama's 24-24 tie with Oklahoma in the 1970 Astro-Bluebonnet Bowl game in Houston. Jeff lettered again in 1971, but missed 1972 when his injury put him out of action, but he came back to play again in 1973. He was the Chevrolet-ABC Player of the Game against LSU in 1970, and was second team All-SEC in 1971. He was a top prep coach in Florida prior to joining the Bama staff in 1977.

JACK RUTLEDGE, He lettered three years, 1959-60-61, and was a member of Alabama's 1961 National Championship team as an offensive lineman. He played in the U.S. Bowl in Washington following his senior season. Jack coached at Demopolis and Sheffield as head coach before joining the Bama staff in 1966. Jack works with the centers and kicking game for the Crimson Tide and is director of Bryant Hall, the athletic dormitory.

GEORGE (SHORTY) WHITE, A member of the staff since the spring of 1975, he was one of the state's top prep coaches at Banks high in Birmingham, having three 4-A state championship teams, and compiled a record of 100-37-5 over a 14-year period. His 1965, 1972 and 1973 teams won state titles. His son, Darryl, is a member of this year's Alabama team, playing split end and being a kick returner. He works with Bama's running backs.

PERRY WILLIS, Perry came to Alabama in 1978 after serving as an assistant at Virginia Tech. He lettered in 1967 and 1970, but injuries knocked him out during 1968 and 1969. He served one year as a graduate assistant, then went to Livingston University for one year before moving on to VPI, where he coached four years. Perry works with the Tide running backs and also is head coach of the junior varsity team.

Alabama Season in Review

ALABAMA 26, GEORGIA TECH 3

Tech fumbled a punt attempt in the opening minutes and gave Alabama an early cheap touchdown and the Crimson Tide was off and winging to a 26-3 victory in its opening game.

The Tide defense shut down the Yellow Jacket running game, giving up just 84 yards, and though Tech played tough defensively, it was never a real threat to win.

Billy Jackson scored both of the first Tide touchdowns, going 15 yards on the first play following the punt fumble and recovery by tackle Jackie Cline, then going in from five yards to cap a 50-yard drive. It was after the second touchdown that kicker Peter Kim missed his only PAT of the year.

James Mallard, the world-class sprinter playing in his first football game ever, caught a 39-yard Don Jacobs pass just before halftime to give Bama a 19-0 lead.

Tech scored on a 36-yard field goal by Don Rice early in the fourth and then QB Alan Gray ran in from the four to cap the Tide scoring after an 80-yard march.

Alabama's completely rebuilt offensive line, with every starter from end to end gone, did well as Bama ground out 308 in rushing yardage.

ALABAMA 41, VANDERBILT 0

Pesky Vanderbilt tried to make a game out of it, but Alabama's depth and defense allowed the Crimson Tide to wind up a 41-0 winner.

Bama took it in the first time it had the ball, marking 80 yards in 11 plays with Joe Jones scoring from the one. Tommy Wilcox recovered a Vandy fumble at the Commodore 13 early in the second after Bama had fumbled away two scoring chances, then Peter Kim hit a 32-yard field goal and it was 10-0.

Jeremiah Castille blocked a Vandy punt and scooped it up and raced 43 yards to push the Tide lead to 17-0, then Kim hit a 45-yard FG just before halftime to make it 20-0 at intermission.

Reserve Benny Orcutt scored from the three in the third, then did it again from the 13 early in the fourth, before Jeff Fagan closed out the scoring with a 19-yard scamper late.

Both Vandy quarterbacks went into the game with ailing arms and the Tide limited the Commodores to just three completions and 27 yards in passing offense. Bama's ground game rolled up 414 yards as 14 different players carried the ball with Joe Jones the top gun with 72 yards.

ALABAMA 59, OLE MISS 35

It started out as an Alabama rout, with Bama quickly going out front 21-0, but the Ole Miss passing game made Bama's defense dizzy and it wound up as an old-fashion scoring parade with the Tide getting out with a 59-35 victory.

Major Ogilvie scored on a 36-yard run and Bart Krout took a 34-yard pass from Don Jacobs and it was quickly 14-0. Then Joe Jones scored on a 28-yard scamper and it was 21-0 after one quarter.

John Fourcade threw four touchdown passes on the day for the Rebels, hitting for 296 yards, and the Tide had to hitch up its offensive britches and go back to work. Freshman Linnie Patrick rushed for 111 and Billy Jackson for 108 as the Tide chewed up 458 yards of rushing real estate.

The Alabama dressing room wasn't a happy place afterwards, since the defense had been ripped for 500 yards, and even the 524 registered by the Tide could overcome the shock of having 35 points scored by Ole Miss.

ALABAMA 45, KENTUCKY 0

It was Paul Bryant's 300th coaching victory and came over a school where he formerly coached, this 45-0 whitewash that didn't come as easy as the final score might indicate. It was only 14-0 at intermission, but three fourth quarter scores by Bama reserves made it look imposing.

Two Tide drives stalled in the first quarter, but Peter Kim booted field goals of 28 and 38 yards. Jim Bob Harris' interception set up Bama's first TD, with Major Ogilvie scoring from the one, then Don Jacobs passed to Bart Krout for the two-pointer. Kim hit a 35-yard FG in the third, then freshman Linnie Patrick went in from the one. Mitch Ferguson scored from the two, then Jeff Fagan bulled his way 41 yards for a score. The final TD came when DE Mike Pitts made a fumble recovery in the end zone. Patrick led the rushers with 121 yards on nine carries, and the tough Tide defense limited the Wildcats to just 128 yards of offense.

ALABAMA 17, RUTGERS 13

Alabama went to the Big Apple, with the Crimson Tide players getting a guided tour of New York City, but when it lined up in Giants Stadium in the Meadowlands to play upstart Rutgers, it quickly found that the Scarlet Knights were capable of bruising the Alabama ego. The Tide won 17-13 in a drizzling rain, but it left dazed and glad to get home to grits and two-story skyscrapers.

Rutgers managed only 47 yards rushing and 98 yards passing, but QB Ed McMichael proved exciting and the Tide spent much of the day as if it was still on the tour bus looking at the sights.

Alex Falcinelli hit a 44-yard field goal to put Rutgers on top 3-0 in the first quarter, but when Peter Kim came back to even the score with a 23-yarder and then Billy Jackson rushed in from the seven and it was 10-3, the Tide may have relaxed.

Falcinelli hit a 39-yard field goal and it was 10-6 at halftime. Don Jacobs connected with James Mallard on a 23-yard pass play, then came right back with the same play for a 49-yard score and it was 17-6. The Tide stopped a Rutgers drive at its own 24, but gave it right back on a fumble and McMichael went to work as he hit Al Ray on a pass for a touchdown.

Rutgers made a mistake then by not going for two, settling for the one-point kick. That made it necessary for the Knights to have to score a touchdown in order to win and they couldn't penetrate the aroused Tide defense the rest of the way, making only two first downs the last 20 minutes of the game.

ALABAMA 27, TENNESSEE 0

It was a glorious day in the beautiful mountains of Tennessee if you happened to be a Crimson Tide fan. The defense limited the Vols to just five first downs and a total offensive production of 59 yards, while the offense rolled up 383 yards, showed some razzle-dazzle plays and stomped Tennessee, 27-0, before ABC-TV cameras.

So dominant was the Bama defense it allowed UT only one of 11 third down conversions and the Tide converted on 12 of 21. Bama ran 82 plays to just 47 for UT.

Peter Kim kicked four field goals on the day, breaking the school regular season record, as he hit from 31, 47, 41 and 24 yards.

Ken Coley led the first Tide TD march, going 59 yards in seven plays with Coley running in from the eight. Don Jacobs passed to Major Ogilvie for the two-pointer. Late in the game, Ogilvie went up the middle for the final score.

It marked the 10th straight year for Alabama to defeat Tennessee, and it rained very hard during the second half, prompting one wag to say, "the 10,000 Alabama people didn't even know it was raining but 86,000 Tennessee fans got soaked."

ALABAMA 42, SOUTHERN MISS. 7

Believe it or not, it was the toughest ticket of the year. Both teams came in 6-0 and nationally ranked, Bama being first and Southern making it to 19th for its first ever Top 20 showing.

Alabama won 42-7 but it wasn't that easy. Don Jacobs scored on a 25 yard keeper late in the first, but USM tied it early in the second on Sammy Winder's one-yard plunge after a pass interference call had set up the Golden Eagles.

From then on, it was all Alabama. Charley Williams scored from the eight and Major Ogilvie scored by recovering an errant pitch from Ken Coley and it was 21-7 at halftime. Linnie Patrick, Don Jacobs and freshman Scott McRae added second half TDs.

Bama had 325 rushing and 93 passing and a total of 418 yards, while USM rushed for 114 and passed for 147. Reggie Collier, the USM quarterback, proved he was a major college player by hitting 12 of 17 for 147 yards.

MISSISSIPPI STATE 6, ALABAMA 3

It was just one of those days. Emory Bellard's Bulldogs came primed for this one and whipped Bama from start to finish. The Tide did have a chance to win at the very end, but a fumble on the State four with just six seconds left broke the nation's longest winning streak of 28 straight.

Bellard, the man most people credit with developing the wishbone offense, also knows something about defending it. His Bullies held Bama to just 116 yards rushing. Tide turnovers helped State. Bama drove to the MSU 23 in the first quarter, only to fumble it away. But on the final play of the first half, Peter Kim booted a 49-yard field goal. State's Danna Moore hit two second half field goals, then State held on as the Tide drove late.

Starting from its 43, Don Jacobs suddenly put life into the passing game, hitting Major Ogilvie for 25 to the State 33, then Jesse Bendross to the 19 and finally to Bart Krout at the four. Confusion created a problem for the Tide, as it had timeouts left and the crowd noise was so loud precious seconds ticked away before Alabama ran a play, only to have Tyrone Keys force the fumble.

ALABAMA 28, LOUISIANA STATE 7

Bama jumped off to a quick 14-0 lead and it looked like it was going to be a romp in Tuscaloosa, but the Tigers narrowed it to 14-7 by halftime and it took two fourth quarter scores to salt it away.

Coming on the heels of the 6-3 loss to Mississippi State, Ken Coley started at QB for the Tide and on the third play of the game streaked 35 yards for a score. On the next possession, Coley went out with an injured hand. Major Ogilvie scored on the first play of the second period. LSU drove 54 yards with Alan Risher going in to cut it to 14-7 and it stayed that way until Ogilvie scored to open the fourth period, and then freshman Joe Carter scored from the three late to wrap it up.

Billy Jackson had a great day, gaining 88 yards and 12 different runners garnered 312 yards. LB Randy Scott led in tackles with 11.

NOTRE DAME 7, ALABAMA 0

A brilliant Alabama defensive effort limited Notre Dame to only 192 yards in offense, but Crimson Tide fumbles set up the only score of the game. After having first fumbled at its own 12, the Tide recovered an Irish miscue to get a short stay of execution, but quickly fumbled the ball back on the Tide four. Phil Carter scored on the second play and that was the ball game. Bama got to the Irish 44, 20, 35 and 37 in the game but couldn't produce points. Starting QB Don Jacobs tried to play on a bad ankle, second QB Ken Coley missed with a hand injury and freshman Walter Lewis took over and did well for his first real assignment. Bama lost his first two fullbacks, Billy Jackson and Charley Williams, too, and that hurt. LB Thomas Boyd and SS Tommy Wilcox led a great defensive charge with 19 tackles each.

ALABAMA 34, AUBURN 18

Freshman quarterback Walter Lewis put new life into the Alabama offense and the Crimson Tide defense woke up after a blistering halftime dressing down by Coach Bear Bryant as it rolled to a 34-18 victory over arch-rival Auburn before 78,549 in Birmingham's Legion Field.

The Tigers went ahead 7-0 and 10-7 in the first quarter, but Lewis with his nifty scrambling revitalized the offense as it took a 21-18 halftime lead.

Senior QB Don Jacobs led the fourth quarter surge as Alabama scored twice to win going away, and the Tide defense limited Auburn to just three first downs and 44 net yards in the second half.

Lewis and converted tight end to fullback Earl Collins both scored for the Tide, as did veteran Major Ogilvie and Billy Jackson, plus Jacobs pitched a 7-yard scoring pass to TE Bart Krout.

Tide kicker Peter Kim hit his first three extra points to increase his consecutive streak to 33-straight, but missed on the next one that would have tied the Alabama school record.

Lewis ran for 133 yards on the day, finishing with 98 net, Jackson had 88 and Collins 49, while the Tide passers went five of seven for 49 yards.
